Change is here....

Destiny is a mysterious thing,
Sometimes enfolding a miracle in a leaky basket of catastrophe.

Francisco Goldman

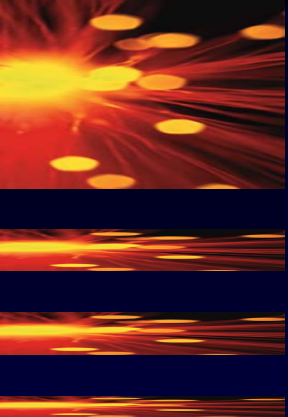

3 Realities of life

- Reality 1: The only certainty is that life is uncertain.
- Reality 2: Once we surrender to the fact that we are unable to control the uncertainty, we will, at last, be able to breath a sigh of relief!
- Reality 3: A 'deep' acceptance that life is uncertain opens the door to powerful way of life.

Tides of change

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide, consisting of a vertical stack of four horizontal bands. The top band shows a bright orange and yellow light source with radiating lines. The subsequent bands show horizontal streaks of light in shades of orange and red, suggesting motion or energy.

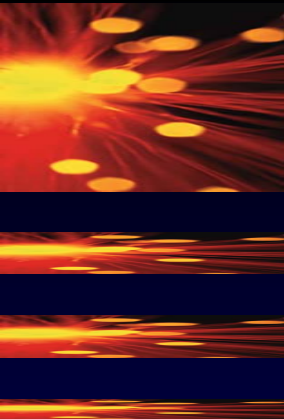

Now, more than ever,
we need something enduring to hold close, something that won't wash away in the furious tides of change
